Investment Objective

The fund seeks to achieve growth of your investment by investing mainly in shares (equity) and similar securities issued by high quality companies listed on the stock exchanges of countries within the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) and, in particular, the U.S. and Western European OECD countries.

Commentary

Straumann was the best performer, rising +10.20% after releasing better than expected second quarter results in August and announcing the sale of Dr Smile, its direct-to-consumer clear-aligner business. Nike was second best, up +6.10% on the news that the CEO was being replaced by Nike veteran Elliot Hill, whose experience spanned many senior positions in the company before his retirement in 2020. Novo Nordisk was the worst performer down -16.13%. The stock reacted negatively to the prospect of increasing competition in the obesity space and the potential for greater than anticipated pricing pressure as a result. Edenred was second worst, down -10.97%. The stock was weighed down by several macro headwinds: a French fiscal budget crisis, a slowdown in the French economy and consequent uncertainty regarding new meal vouchers regulation.
