Commentary

Hermès was the best performer this month up +18.1%. The company reported strong Q4 results ahead of market estimates on both revenue and profit, with strong growth and resilience shown across all geographies and categories. Idexx Labs was second best, up +11.7%. The company reported strong results ahead of consensus, growing 13% in Q4. Clinical visit growth rates are improving and, should they turn positive in FY24, will likely support an acceleration in growth. Edenred was the worst performer, down -17.4%. Despite reporting strong 2023 results with 24% organic growth and margin expansion, the stock fell on the news that Italian authorities had launched an investigation into alleged fraudulent activities. Dassault Systèmes was second worst, down -10.5%. The company reported soft Q4 results with new licenses growth below expectation and gave underwhelming guidance for both Medidata and new licenses growth for FY24.
